Public Comment Non-Agenda Items***: [*If time permits. There is a time limit of 3 minutes per person]

Motion to Adjourn

*Public Comment on Agenda Items. Comment Periods are for Residents of the Borough and/or taxpayers of the Borough. Non-resident individuals will not be recognized (permitted to speak). Any disruption caused by refusal to comply with this rule will result in ejection from the meeting. (Sunshine Act, § 710. Rules and regulations for the conduct of meetings).

**Public Comment on non-agenda items. If time allows, residents of the borough and/or taxpayers of the borough may make general comments at this time. The speaker must identify themselves and their address before commenting. The speaker is limited to three minutes. At no time will rude, verbally aggressive, or insulting comments be tolerated. Refusal to yield the floor at the end of the time limit shall be deemed disruptive; such behavior will not be tolerated and shall be immediately terminated when ordered by the President.
